PHILOSOPHY

Our Sanskrit name means perfect, whole, and complete. This simple idea dictates the design philosophy behind all of our ceramics.

Entirely handmade by local artisans at our facility in Bali, each piece is a thoughtful statement of contemporary design realized through the heart and hands of the finest skilled craftsmen in the world.

FACTORY

All Kevala products are designed and manufactured at our facility in Sanur on the island's east coast. We employ over 100 hand-picked artisans who work under team of highly qualified technical consultants and managers.

Our design team are graduates of some of the top universities in Indonesia and with the hands on experience they receive in Kevala, they offer knowledge and direction that allows our clients to receive complete customer care and service.

PRODUCT INFORMATION

Fostered by years of experience with select clays, countless glazes and innovative shapes, Kevala's insatiable appetite for new concepts in stoneware design continues. We carry a wide range of glazes and shapes, however we are constantly developing new designs to keep ahead of an ever growing market. Kevala stoneware products are hand-crafted items. As such, ultra-slight variances in glaze, size, texture and weight may exist within our product ranges.

These inconsistencies are inherent to the ceramic process and are historically considered to be an attractive aspect of the craft.

The clay body recipes used for our stoneware are produced in-house, and are fired up to 1200 degrees Celsius. During the glaze firing these clay bodies become vitrified which allows the glaze to seal the body. High temperature firing results to stronger stoneware pieces.

Inspired by the coral colors of salmon peach, teal and green with the addition of dark brown to highlight the color of late sunset and the depth of the ocean, this custom design speaks its own message to the sea element within you.

Kevala for Mari Beach Club

Basking under the sun at this stunning beach club to find yourself amidst the nature connecting the land and the sea. Enriched by its ingrown roots of Balinese hospitality and design, be prepared for the fun and the more content version of you.

Kevala for The Street Food Chef: Will Meyrick

With his Scottish heritage, an Australian accent and an Indonesian home, Will Meyrick isn't easily categorized. Often described as Western on the outside and Asian on the inside, Will's passion for the cuisine culture and culinary heritage of this fascinatingly diverse part of the world is what really defines him and sets him apart as a chef and restaurateur. With two acclaimed and award winning restaurants in Bali under his belt, the fine-dining flagship Sarong - which secured a spot on Asia's 50 Best Restaurants Awards, as well as S. Pellegrino Indonesia's Best Restaurant - its younger, irreverent sibling, Mama San, and regional Thai styled E&O in Jakarta – and still just 37 years old, Will has carved a reputation for himself in the Asian culinary scene as one to watch. Throw in his debut cookbook Sarong Inspirations and finished filming two new TV shows – one as a judge on the new season of Top Chef Indonesia and the other, his very own series on TransTV, the aptly titled Street Food Chef – and what you have is one busy gastro-maestro! Kevala is honored to be part of his wonderful journey.

At a time when improved rail and road systems brought rubber and palm oil plantation owners over to Singapore from Malaya every weekend, it was known as the 'Rendezvous of Planters'. Not a formal bar, but rather tables placed next to another facing Bras Basah Road, it was a vantage point from which male visitors surveyed the procession of ladies.
